

Attitude

My attitude will be the same as that of Christ Jesus. As a follower of Jesus and a part of His Body, the Church, I choose to allow His attitude to characterize my life. His was always one of humility and service, concerned with others first. Though many consider humility an undesirable virtue, as a follower of Jesus it is one of my highest. I have adopted this attitude by the power of His Spirit living in me.

I am not a slave to my emotions. I do not live by the impulsive desires my feelings might lead me to do contrary to God's Word. Rather I have made a choice to always respond to the Spirit with the attitude of Jesus, following His example. Because of the power of the Holy Spirit living in me I can control my attitude regardless of the circumstances. Jesus has this attitude and so must I. My attitude will be the same as that of Christ Jesus.

God has a purpose and plan for me today. Because of this I will guard against allowing the pressures of this day to taint my attitude. For in the same way that God, my loving Heavenly Father, was revealed to the world through Jesus, now He is revealed to the world through Jesus in me. As I choose to allow my attitude to conform to that of Jesus', He uses me to be a visible and tangible expression of His love to others. With my attitude, I follow the will of the Father and give Him glory in and for all things, just as Jesus did. My attitude will be the same as that of Christ Jesus.

Jesus placed His rights and authority aside to serve others while on this earth, I will do the same. His attitude was one of generosity, mine will be the same. His attitude was to serve others, placing others' needs above His own, mine will be the same. My attitude will be the same as that of Christ Jesus.
