

DAILY READING: GRACE

Today I live and move to the rhythm of God's grace. Grace entered my life when I accepted what Jesus did for me on the cross as my Savior. At that moment I received what I don't deserve: forgiveness, freedom and new life—grace. There is nothing I could ever do on my own to earn His grace. His grace is totally based on what Jesus did for me on the cross. He paid the debt of my sin in full.

Grace does not pretend my sin isn't real; it recognizes the damage done by my behavior and sets me free from sin's penalty and power. The Bible says there is no more condemnation for those who are followers of Jesus Christ. I walk in the freedom of His Spirit, not as a slave to bad habits and desires. God pours grace on me. Today I live and move to the rhythm of God's grace.

Because of the grace of God through Jesus I am who I am: forgiven, accepted and loved; my relationship with Him is made right. Because of the grace of God through Jesus I am not who I used to be; my old life of sin is gone and I am living in new life. Because of the grace of God through Jesus I am not yet who I am going to be, for He will finish the work of faith He began in my life.

Grace is not just a benefit from God; grace is His very nature and character. God's grace through Jesus is 100% enough. His grace sustains me in and through all things. As I continue to live in the truth and love of Jesus, I experience grace. I do not have to work to earn His approval, because of grace He already approves of me. There is nothing I can do to pay Him back. There are no rules or regulations; there is simply Jesus, the cross and grace. I live in His favor, I live in His kindness and I am His friend. Today I live and move to the rhythm of God's grace.

MEMORY VERSE:

Ephesians 2:8-9
 "God saved you by his grace when you believed. And you can't take credit for this; it is a gift from God."
 Ephesians 2:8-9

ACTIVITY:

Practice grace. When someone messes up, give them grace.

Continue to practice giving grace to those around you. Make it a habit.

*If someone is causing you harm physically or emotionally you do not have to be okay with their behavior. Talk to a trusted adult if this is happening to you.

LIFE TRANSFORMATION QUESTIONS:

1. As you read the Daily Reading, what stood out and why?
2. What action will you take to apply this truth? Be specific.
3. What areas of your life will benefit from this action? How and why?
