

FAQs for this series

1. What is the "Compassion Changes Everything" sermon series about?

This sermon series is about displaying compassion in the same way that Jesus did. Over six weeks, we will focus on helping people understand the compassionate heart of God the Father and how to put it into practical action. We base our teachings on the words of Jesus in Luke 6:36, "You must be compassionate, just as your Father is compassionate." Compassion is a practical way to live out the Great Commandment and the Great Commission.

2. How does the sermon series relate to the teachings of Jesus?

Jesus often spoke about ministering to the poor and needy. Through this sermon series, we aim to put His words into practice by showing compassion to others in our communities and beyond. We believe this is a hands-on way to fulfill His teachings and the Great Commission.

3. Can I participate in the sermon series even if I'm not physically present?

Yes, absolutely. We understand that not everyone can be physically present for every sermon. We work hard to ensure all sermons are available live online for you to participate wherever you are and on demand at alivechurch.com.

4. How does the sermon series aim to show compassion to women?

Our sermon, "Hope for Every Woman," focuses on women's empowerment. We believe in uplifting and supporting women in our communities and globally, and this sermon will highlight ways we can show compassion and make a positive impact. We will also be having a special Women's Compassion event on Saturday.

5. How can I put the teachings of this sermon series into practice?

This sermon series is not just about understanding compassion; it's about putting it into action. We will provide practical suggestions and initiatives in cooperation with Convoy of Hope so you can get involved. Community events, women empowerment, rural initiatives, agricultural projects, disaster services, and children's feeding programs.

6. What is the significance of the sermon "Hope begins with a meal"?

This sermon emphasizes the importance of meeting basic needs to show compassion. By providing meals to children in need, we're feeding their bodies and nourishing their hope and future. It's a practical and significant way to show compassion. We will partner with Convoy of Hope through their One Day To Feed the World initiative to make this a very hands-on moment.

7. How does the sermon series address rural initiatives and agriculture?

Our sermons "Hope for Rural Communities" and "Hope In Every Harvest" focus on supporting rural communities and agricultural initiatives. We believe that by investing our compassion in these areas, we can create sustainable change and provide hope for those in rural areas.

8. How does the "Compassion Changes Everything" series inspire personal growth?

This series aims to inspire personal growth by encouraging individuals to live out the teachings of Jesus in practical ways. As we learn to show compassion in our daily lives, we not only help others but also grow in our own journey of faith and personal development.
